FURTHER DETAILS

Insurance

Kogarah Bay Sailing Club Inc. insurance does not insure you for any event while racing. You are covered by the Sailing Australia personal injury policy while your membership is current and your name is registered on the Sailing Australia database.

We register your name when you pay your membership. You must also cover your own boat as our public liability policy does not cover members while racing. When seeking insurance for your boat, you should advise your insurer that it will be used for racing.
